Federal Election Commission
Mr. Micheal Toner, Commissioner
999 E Street Northwest
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Commissioner Toner:

In praying for the Federal Election Commission and its upcoming decision scheduled May 13, 2004, and in reading newspaper articles about it, I sensed that you understand that God is always right and want His will to prevail in this decision. If you want someone to fast a day with you, not that your way prevails, but that God's will, regardless of how close or how far it is from your's will prevail I would love to agree in a fast with you sir.

As a commissioner of the FEC, you have natural dominion authority to effect your decisions. When you yield in a fast for God's will to prevail regardless of whether or not that would override your will in certain aspects, the free will of a part of the FEC is calling forth the power of God to rule. As both of us have authority in the spirit, I want to be able to call forth the victory of God with you.

I do not have e-mail, but my telephone number is
(520) 573-6514. You may call collect.

Sincerely,

Timothy Perrin
